

Financial Policy

At Balon we believe that sound financial management is the foundation for business success and future prosperity.

All financial reports and statutory documentation will be completed on time, honestly and accurately and made available as appropriate. The company directors will maintain their awareness of the company's financial position at all times and act in the best interests of the organisation.

Marcus Balon
Director

Michael Taylor
Director

BALON